ACUIA's ONE DAY SEMINAR

June 14, 2011

Widely acclaimed as one of the best teaching tools in the credit union system, the ACUIA One-Day Seminar is an excellent way for both new & experienced auditors to learn about the issues of the day. Attendees can choose to attend the One-Day Seminar, the Annual Conference or both. There is a separate fee for each event.

Two Sessions Available Choose based on your experience:

AUDITING 101

Are you new to the audit world? Looking for pointers from some of the most seasoned and knowledgeable experts in the movement? If so, then you'll want to sign up for this seminar. Taught by renowned auditors Pat Richey, John Gallagher and Barry Lucas, this seminar will provide the basics of auditing in an easy to understand manner.

MORTGAGE AUDITING / COMMERCIAL LENDING AUDITING

Two of the biggest issues for credit unions have been troubles in the mortgage and commercial lending markets. How should a credit union reserve properly for mortgages?
